

Janey (Clark) Herschbach

April 15, 1944 - June 29, 2017

Janey Herschbach

Resident of Campbell

Janey went home to heaven to see her Savior, Jesus, on June 29 after a brief but fierce struggle with cancer. She touched many lives with her thoughtfulness to others.

Janey was born in Oakland, CA, graduated from Campbell High School, attended Westmont College, and graduated from San Jose State. She taught 38 years in the Moreland School District. Her personal relationship with Jesus Christ as her Savior was the cornerstone of her life. She was actively involved in church activities at First Baptist Community Church in Los Gatos. Janey cherished her summers at Mt. Hermon Christian Conference Center. In addition, she loved to visit with anybody and was wonderfully supportive to others.

Janey is survived by her loving husband, Mark, daughter Heidi, grandson Stephen, and brother Jim Clark. Preceding her to heaven were her son, Timothy, and her parents, Earl and Rhoda Clark.
